DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's arguments filed 12/15/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because do not addressed the 101 rejection of pr 3, in page 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 1-20 have not practical application in the technological arts. The claims recites a series of steps and are considered for the purpose of analysis under 35 U.S.C. 101 as reciting a series of steps, but do not recite any connection to the technological arts. The claims do not define the terms "leasing said item to a customer in said first financial transaction" or "establishing a reserve credit account" as being electronic or computerized components; nor do they define "transferring affected ownership" as taking place on a computer system. The claims would de deemed statutory if they recited a connection to the technological arts.
